Dear families of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

There is a brevity, a certain terseness, in the scripture readings for Easter Sunday. Peter's speech in Acts is built of direct, pointed sentences. Paul's letters are based on straightforward creed-like statements. Even the Gospel story only briefly recounts what will turn out to be one of the most remarkable events in human history—the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Advertising agents call these encapsulated points of information "bullet points." Scripture scholars call them kerygmata, or "kernels our faith". Actually, "kernels" or "seeds" are good terms for these statements, since throughout the Easter season, we will hear in the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters of Paul, and the Gospel accounts of the days following the Resurrection exactly how these kerygmata began to flower, how they continued to grow through the life of the early church. May these Easter "seeds" of faith serve a similar purpose for us, too, so that the life of the risen Christ will flourish in us and through our witness in the coming days.

As we at Immaculate Heart of Mary focus on daily prayer during this time of unrest take this chance to be with our families. It is a good time to let the hectic days slow down. Teach your children to pray the Rosary. Read to them about their patron saints. And most of all remember the Father, Son and Holy Spirit is with us.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

Father Quang

Queridas familias del Inmaculado Corazón de María

Hay una brevedad, una cierta concisión en las lecturas del Domingo de Pascua. El discurso de Pedro en Hechos está construido con frases directas y al punto. Las cartas de Pablo se basan en declaraciones directas como credos. Hasta el relato del Evangelio sólo narra brevemente lo que resultará ser uno de los sucesos más notables de la historia humana –la Resurrección de Jesús de entre los muertos. Los agentes publicitarios llaman a estos resúmenes "puntos para destacar". Los biblistas los llaman kerigma o las "semillas" de nuestra fe. En realidad, "semillas" o granos son buenos términos para estas afirmaciones, puesto que durante todo el tiempo de Pascua, oiremos en los Hechos de los Apóstoles, en las cartas de Pablo y en los relatos del Evangelio sobre los días que siguieron a la Resurrección, exactamente cómo ese kerigma comienza a florecer, cómo continúa creciendo en la vida de la nueva Iglesia. Que estas "semillas" pascuales de fe sirvan un propósito similar para nosotros también, para que la vida de Cristo Resucitado florezca en nosotros y mediante nuestro testimonio en los días que siguen.

Mientras nosotros en la iglesia del Inmaculado Corazon de Maria nos centramos en la oración diaria durante este tiempo de inquietud tomamos esta oportunidad para estar con nuestras familias. Es un buen momento para dejar que los días agitados disminuyan. Enseñen a sus hijos a rezar el rosario. Léanles sobre sus santos patrones. Y sobre todo recuerden al Padre, al Hijo y al Espíritu Santo con nosotros.

Inmaculado Corazón de María, ruega por nosotros.

Padre Quang

Information/Información

Aunque la Pascua no es el comienzo del año litúrgico católico romano, es el punto culminante del año. Pascua es la celebración del misterio pascual, que viene de la palabra "pascha", que significa "Pascua".

Hay un número de aspectos del misterio pascual incorporado en la celebración de la Pascua que lo hace tan embravecido. Uno de estos aspectos, y quizás el que viene a la mente de la mayoría de los cristianos cuando piensan en la Pascua, es el recuerdo de la vida, muerte y resurrección de Jesús.

Otro aspecto de los misterios de la Pascua es la presencia de Cristo resucitado más allá del tiempo de su viaje humano. La Resurrección, de hecho, todo el misterio pascual, no es un evento pasado que simplemente conmemoramos. Es parte de nuestras vidas hoy, parte de la vida de la Iglesia desde los días de la comunidad que se formó alrededor de Jesús de Nazaret, continuando y construyéndose en el amor mientras ustedes están en su asamblea cada domingo en su propia parroquia.

En los Evangelios no encontramos el domingo como día de reunión de los seguidores de Jesús, pero descubrimos en los cuatro Evangelios que la Resurrección tuvo lugar en domingo. (Ver Mateo 28:1-7, Marcos 16:1-8, Lucas 24:1-8, y Juan 20:1-18.) Además de ser el día en que Jesús había sido levantado de entre los muertos, el primer día de la semana fue también el día en que Jesús se apareció a los discípulos después de la Resurrección...

No podemos, por un lado, pensar en la Resurrección como un mero acontecimiento en la vida del Jesús histórico. Eso es totalmente cierto, pero la Resurrección continúa en la vida de la Iglesia. Experimentamos la Resurrección cuando celebramos la iniciación de nuevos miembros en nuestras comunidades en la Vigilia Pascual. Experimentamos la Resurrección cuando celebramos el bautismo de los niños. Experimentamos la Resurrección cuando celebramos los sacramentos. Y experimentamos la Resurrección cuando nos unimos a los que amamos porque son regalos de Dios. Sin embargo, estas experiencias son sólo una cara de la moneda.

La Resurrección también fue parte de la experiencia de Jesús, el Hijo de Dios que compartió su vida humana con nosotros por su encarnación. Así que la Resurrección también fue parte de la experiencia del misterio pascual en la vida de Jesús hace dos milenios. Esa es la otra cara de la moneda que es la fe cristiana.

Even though Easter is not the beginning of the Roman Catholic liturgical year, it is the highpoint of the year. Easter is the celebration of the paschal mystery, coming from the word pascha, which means “Easter.”

There are a number of aspects of the paschal mystery incorporated into the celebration of Easter that makes it so embrative. One of these aspects, and perhaps the one that comes to the minds of most Christians when they think about Easter, is the memory of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Another aspect of the Easter mysteries is the presence of the risen Christ beyond the time of his human journey. The Resurrection—indeed the whole of the paschal mystery—is not a past event that we merely commemorate. It is part of our lives today, part of the life of the Church since the days of the community that was formed around Jesus of Nazareth, continuing and being built up in love as you stand in your assembly each Sunday at your own parish.

In the Gospels we do not find Sunday as a day for assembling the followers of Jesus, but we discover in all four Gospels that the Resurrection took place on a Sunday. (See Matthew 28:1-7, Mark 16:1-8, Luke 24:1-8, and John 20:1-18.) In addition to being the day on which Jesus had been raised from the dead, the first day of the week was also the day on which Jesus appeared to the disciples after the Resurrection.

We cannot, on the one hand, think of the Resurrection as merely an event in the life of the historical Jesus. That is wholly true, yet the Resurrection continues in the life of the Church. We experience the Resurrection when we celebrate the initiation of new members into our communities at the Easter Vigil. We experience the Resurrection when we celebrate the baptism of infants. We experience the Resurrection whenever we celebrate the sacraments. And we experience the Resurrection whenever we bond with those we love because they are gifts of God. Yet these experiences are only one side of the coin.

The Resurrection also was part of the experience of Jesus, the Son of God who shared his human life with us by his incarnation. And so the Resurrection also was part of the experience of the paschal mystery in the life of Jesus two millennia ago. That is the other side of the coin that is the Christian faith.

Information/Información

Oracion San Miguel

San Miguel Arcángel,
defiéndenos en la batalla.
Sé nuestro amparo contra la
perversidad y asechanzas del
demonio. Reprímale Dios,
pedimos suplicantes,
y tú Príncipe de la
Milicia Celestial,
con el divino poder de Dios,
arroja al infierno a Satanás
y a todos los espíritus malignos
que andan dispersos
por el mundo
para la perdición de las almas.
Amén.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel,
defend us in battle,
be our protection
against the wickedness and
snares of the devil.
May God
rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan
and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

A Prayer to Combat the Coronavirus Pandemic

Most Merciful and Triune God,
We come to You in our weakness.
We come to You in our fear.
We come to You with trust.
For You alone are our hope.
We place before You the disease present in our world.
We turn to You in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into Your Eternal Home.

Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in Your care.

Jesus, I trust in You.
Jesus, I trust in You.
Jesus, I trust in You.

Amen.

Una oración para combatir la pandemia del virus Corona

Dios misericordioso y triuno,
Venimos a ti en nuestra debilidad.
Venimos a ti en nuestro miedo.
Venimos a ti con confianza.
Porque sólo Tú eres nuestra esperanza.
Ponemos ante ti la enfermedad presente en nuestro mundo.
Nos dirigimos a ti en nuestros momentos de necesidad.

Trae la sabiduría a los médicos.
Da comprensión a los científicos.
Dota a los cuidadores con compasión y generosidad.
Trae la curación a los enfermos.
Protege a los que están en mayor riesgo.
Da consuelo a los que han perdido a un ser querido.
Da la bienvenida a los que han muerto a Tu Hogar Eterno.

Estabiliza nuestras comunidades.
Únete a nosotros en nuestra compasión.
Quita todo el miedo de nuestros corazones.
Llénanos de confianza en Tu cuidado.

Jesús, confío en ti.
Jesús, confío en ti.
Jesús, confío en ti.

Amén.

Easter Greetings to all. Easter is a life changer for us all. Because Christ rose from the dead, we know that the grave is not a "dead end", and that we have hope for the future. We see that there are many problems in our world, and much suffering, but even in the midst of all the negatives we can hope for a bright future. This is not just wishful thinking, but a sure promise we can lay hold of and claim for ourselves and those we love. In the resurrection, Jesus is a new creation, a new way of being, and we receive that newness through our own baptism and in weekly participation in Christ's sacrifice of his body and blood. Let us live our faith, and let us ask God to renew us day by day. Happy Easter!!!

Priests, Deacons, Sisters and Staff of IHM

Saludos y Felices Pascuas a todos. Pascua es como un cambio de vida para todos nosotros. Porque Cristo resucitó de los muertos, nosotros sabemos que la tumba no es el "punto final" y que nosotros tenemos esperanza para el futuro. Nosotros vemos que hay muchos problemas in nuestro mundo, y también mucho sufrimiento, pero también en el medio de todo lo negativo nosotros podemos tener la esperanza por un futuro brillante. Esto no es solamente un pensamiento deseoso, pero una promesa segura que podemos contar y demandar para nosotros y a los que queremos. En la resurrección, Jesús es una nueva creación, una manera nueva de ser, y nosotros recibimos esa novedad por medio de nuestro propio bautismo y en la participación semanal en el sacrificio de Cristo de su cuerpo y sangre. Vivamos nuestra fé y preguntemos a Dios que nos la renueve día a día. Felices Pascuas!!

Sacerdotes, Diáconos, Hermanas y el personal de IHM
