Dear families of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

People with the leprosy skin condition—today known as Hansen's disease—described in today's first reading and gospel found themselves banished to the margins of society. Those in power deemed people with leprosy both physically and morally unclean. They believed the painful skin condition revealed some sort of sinful transgression made by the sick person and that anyone who encountered such a person would also become unclean. Sadly, similar ostracization continues to be practiced today. Time and again people with privilege cast fellow human beings aside because of differences of ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, income, and abilities. Who are the modern day "lepers" in our community? How can this congregation follow the model of Jesus and encounter those on the margins with mercy and compassion?

Jesus would have been keenly aware of the stigmas against people with leprosy. He knew what it meant to be caught speaking—much less touching—someone with this disease. Yet, Jesus did not back away. Rather, he moved closer. Jesus touched the scabbed, swollen flesh of the man kneeling in front of him and made him clean.

Jesus' actions remind us of the healing qualities of appropriate touch. Human beings are made to be in communion with each other in physical, embodied ways. We hug, hold hands, offer a pat on the back, and touch in other ways as signs of support and affection. Who in our community is isolated and could use a visit? Who is experiencing grief and might find solace in a hug? After asking for and receiving consent, such actions can be sources of healing.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

Fr. Quang

Queridas familias del Corazón Inmaculado de María,

Los enfermos de lepra -hoy conocida como enfermedad de Hansen—descritos en la primera lectura y en el Evangelio de hoy se encontraban desterrados a los márgenes de la sociedad. Los poderosos consideraban a los enfermos de lepra impuros física y moralmente. Creían que la dolorosa condición de la piel revelaba algún tipo de transgresión pecaminosa cometida por el enfermo y que cualquiera que se encontrara con una persona así también quedaría impuro. Lamentablemente, hoy en día se sigue practicando un ostracismo similar. Una y otra vez, personas privilegiadas apartan a otros seres humanos por sus diferencias étnicas, de género, orientación sexual, religión, ingresos y capacidades. ¿Quiénes son los "leprosos" modernos de nuestra comunidad? ¿Cómo puede esta congregación seguir el modelo de Jesús y salir al encuentro de los marginados con misericordia y compasión?

Jesús habría sido muy consciente de los estigmas contra las personas con lepra. Sabía lo que significaba ser sorprendido hablando -y mucho menos tocando- a alguien con esta enfermedad. Sin embargo, Jesús no retrocedió. Al contrario, se acercó. Jesús tocó la carne costrosa e hinchada del hombre arrodillado ante él y lo limpió.

Las acciones de Jesús nos recuerdan las cualidades curativas del tacto apropiado. Los seres humanos estamos hechos para estar en comunión con los demás de forma física y corporal. Nos abrazamos, nos cogemos de la mano, nos damos palmaditas en la espalda y nos tocamos de otras maneras en señal de apoyo y afecto. ¿Quién de nuestra comunidad está aislado y necesita una visita? ¿Quién está sufriendo y podría encontrar consuelo en un abrazo? Tras pedir y recibir el consentimiento, estas acciones pueden ser fuentes de sanación.

Inmaculado Corazón de María, ruega por nosotros.

Padre Quang

Entrance HymnHealing River of the Spirit
BEACH SPRING

Healing river of the Spirit,
Bathe the wounds that living brings.
Plunge our pain, our sin, our sadness
Deep beneath your sacred springs.
Weary from the restless searching
That has lured us from your side,
We discover in your presence
Peace the world cannot provide.

Wellspring of the healing Spirit,
Stream that flows to bring release,
As we gain our selves, our senses,
May our lives reflect your peace.
Grateful for the flood that heals us,
May your Church enact your grace.
As we meet both friend and stranger,
May we see our Savior's face.

Living stream that heals the nations,
Make us channels of your power.
All the world is torn by conflict;
Wars are raging at this hour.
Saving Spirit, move among us,
Guide our winding human course,
Till we find our way together,
Flowing homeward to our Source.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory;
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, son of the Father;
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us,
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the most high, Jesus Christ
with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

Amen, Amen.

my guilt I did not hide.

I said, "I will confess my transgression

Communion Hymn

Shepherd of My Heart

Francis O'Brien

1. My shepherd is the Lord, for nothing shall I want;
green are the pastures where I'm led to repose.
Near waters still and deep God will refresh my soul.
I am led onward in ways true to the Name.

Refrain

Guide me, O shepherd of my heart;
lead me homeward through the dark, into everlasting day.
Show me the way of truth and light;
keep me always in your sight.
May my life never part from the shepherd of my heart.

2. If I should walk one day into the vale of darkness,
no evil shall I fear with God at my side.
There with your crook and staff you give me strength and comfort;
you spread a banquet in the sight of my foes.
3. You anoint my head with oil; my cup is overflowing;
goodness and kindness crown the days of my life.
Within the Lord's own house I dwell in peace forever;
within the house of God my soul is at rest.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

The leper in today's Gospel was not only severely ill, but he was also barred from practicing his faith. Because he was considered unclean, he could not enter the temple to worship. It is no wonder he did everything in his power to find Jesus and beg him for healing. And heal him Jesus did, both body and soul. According to commentary on this passage from the USCCB, "In curing the leper, Jesus assumes that the priests will reinstate the cured man into the religious community." It seems to me that this Gospel is about faith, and about love. The leper had great faith that Jesus could heal him, and the great love of Jesus for this man moved Jesus to go against mosaic law by touching and healing him. When we read the Scriptures we are reminded over and over again how much God loves us. Let us allow this knowledge to sink into our hearts and change us. When we begin to reflect God's love to those around us, we will find that our lives are filled with his peace. Give it a try: Love as Jesus loves.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The Gospel is about Jesus' love, and it's also about great faith. Faith is a theological virtue that involves believing in God and everything he has said and revealed. It is a free gift from God, and with the help of his grace, faith is the foundation of our personal and communal relationship with our Triune God. As God's children baptized into the Body of Christ, we can root everything we do in faith so that all of our actions point to God and to building his kingdom. How do we do this? It's hard to say it much better than Paul does in his letter to the Corinthians today: "Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God."

ACCOMPANY How do we love as Jesus loves? Accompany another. Perhaps there is someone in our lives with whom we can walk alongside on their journey of faith. It need not be intimidating; as Christian disciples we already possess the tools we need to accompany: listen, love, share and pray.

The Feast of the Holy Face of Jesus – Shrove Tuesday

The liturgical season of Lent begins this week on Ash Wednesday. The day before is known as Shrove Tuesday. In 1958, Pope Pius XII declared Shrove Tuesday as the Feast of the Holy Face of Jesus.

The devotion to the Holy Face of Jesus can be traced back to a Discalced Carmelite nun from Tours, France, named Sister Mary of Saint Peter. Beginning in 1884, she received what was described as an interior vision in which Jesus desired a devotion dedicated to his Holy Face. The purpose was to make reparation for sins against the first three commandments: denial of God, Blasphemy, and Profanation of Sundays and Holy Days.

Several years later, Pope Pius IX had the relic of Veronica's veil placed for public veneration in Rome. The Divine Face appeared illuminated and distinctly during this time. In 1889, the first photograph was made of the Shroud of Turin, and the face on the Shroud was seen for the first time.

In 1936, an Italian religious sister, Maria Pierina de Mecheli, reported a vision in which Jesus asked her to make a medal with His Holy Face. The ensuing medal bears a replica of the face from the Shroud of Turin on the front with the inscription of Psalm 66:2: "May, O Lord, the light of Thy countenance shine upon us." On the other side is an image of a radiant Sacred Host with the monogram of the Holy Name, "IHS," and the inscription, "Stay with us, O Lord." In a later vision, Jesus asked for a special Feast the day before Ash Wednesday.

Please continue to pray for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, and Holy Matrimony. Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us! Most Holy Face of Jesus, have mercy on us!

Fiesta de la Santo Rostro de Jesús - Martes de Carnaval

El tiempo litúrgico de Cuaresma comienza esta semana con el Miércoles de Ceniza. La víspera se celebra el Martes de Carnaval. En 1958, el Papa Pío XII declaró el Martes de Carnaval Fiesta del Santo Rostro de Jesús.

La devoción al Santo Rostro de Jesús se remonta a una monja carmelita descalza de Tours, Francia, llamada Sor María de San Pedro. A partir del 1884, recibió lo que se describió como una visión interior en la que Jesús deseaba una devoción dedicada a su Santo Rostro. El propósito era reparar los pecados contra los tres primeros mandamientos: negación de Dios, blasfemia y profanación de los domingos y días santos.

Varios años después, el Papa Pío IX hizo colocar la reliquia del velo de la Verónica para su veneración pública en Roma. El Divino Rostro apareció iluminado y claramente durante este tiempo. En 1889, se hizo la primera fotografía de la Sábana Santa de Turín, y el rostro de la Sábana se vio por primera vez.

En 1936, una religiosa italiana, Maria Pierina de Mecheli, tuvo una visión en la que Jesús le pedía que hiciera una medalla con su Santo Rostro. La medalla resultante lleva enfrente una réplica del rostro de la Sábana Santa de Turín con la inscripción del Salmo 66:2: "Que, Señor, la luz de tu rostro brille sobre nosotros". En el otro lado hay una imagen de una Sagrada Hostia radiante con el monograma del Santo Nombre, "IHS", y la inscripción: "Quédate con nosotros, Señor". En una visión posterior, Jesús pidió una fiesta especial la víspera del Miércoles de Ceniza.

Por favor, continuad rezando por las vocaciones al sacerdocio, al diaconado, a la vida religiosa y al Santo Matrimonio. Inmaculado Corazón de María, ruega por nosotros. Santísimo Rostro de Jesús, iten piedad de nosotros!

Blessing Bags for those in Need

Our Youth ministry will be making blessing bags for those in need again this year. We hope to make 150-200 bags. We are asking our parish family to help us by donating items. A collection basket will be in the entrance of the Church through the month of February. Donations may also be dropped off at the Main Office or brought to any youth ministry meeting throughout the week. Any amount of items for donation will be gratefully accepted! TOGETHER we can make a difference for those in need!
