Dear families of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

Today's readings remind us of the divine presence in the created world. The first reading from Genesis tells of God's covenant with Noah and all living creatures. God promises to set a rainbow in the clouds to serve as a sign of the covenant with earth. Never again will flood waters be used to destroy humankind.

The gospel situates Jesus in an opposite type of climate: the desert. Satan tempts Jesus on harsh, barren land and still the Son of God comes out victorious. Let today's readings serve as an invitation to spend time in nature this Lent. Try to get out on those pristine days when the temperature feels just right, as well as days when the climate pushes you out of your comfort zone. Remember that the divine is present in all times and places.

The second readings throughout Lent assert the importance of baptism as the entryway into the paschal mystery of Jesus. In the waters of baptism, God's mercy embraces us. We are clothed as a new creation and welcomed into the life of Christ. Lent is a time to recall our own baptismal promises, as well as a journey with the catechumens who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil. The presence of catechumens is a great gift to the church. They remind us of our commitment to Christian discipleship and the power of saying "yes" to God's call. Let us keep all catechumens and their sponsors in prayers this Lent.

Immaculate Heart of Mary pray for us.

Father Quang

Queridas familias del Corazón Inmaculado de María,

Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan la presencia divina en el mundo creado. La primera lectura del Génesis nos habla de la alianza de Dios con Noé y con todos los seres vivientes. Dios promete poner un arco iris en las nubes para que sirva de signo de la alianza con la tierra. Nunca más se utilizarán las aguas del diluvio para destruir a la humanidad.

El Evangelio sitúa a Jesús en un clima opuesto: el desierto. Satanás tienta a Jesús en una tierra dura y estéril, y aun así el Hijo de Dios sale victorioso. Dejemos que las lecturas de hoy nos sirvan de invitación a pasar tiempo en la naturaleza esta Cuaresma. Intenta salir en esos días prístinos en los que la temperatura es la adecuada, así como en los días en los que el clima te empuja fuera de tu zona de confort. Recuerda que lo divino está presente en todo momento y lugar.

Las segundas lecturas de la Cuaresma afirman la importancia del bautismo como puerta de entrada al misterio pascual de Jesús. En las aguas del bautismo, la misericordia de Dios nos abraza. Somos revestidos de una nueva creación y acogidos en la vida de Cristo. La Cuaresma es un tiempo para recordar nuestras propias promesas bautismales, así como un viaje con los catecúmenos que serán bautizados en la Vigilia Pascual. La presencia de los catecúmenos es un gran don para la Iglesia. Nos recuerdan nuestro compromiso con el discipulado cristiano y el poder de decir "sí" a la llamada de Dios. Tengamos presentes en nuestras oraciones a todos los catecúmenos y a sus padrinos en esta Cuaresma.

Inmaculado Corazón de María, ruega por nosotros,

Padre Quang

First Sunday of Lent

Gn 9:8-15 | 1 Pt 3:18-22 | Mk 1:12-15

Written by

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today is the first day of Lent! It is the beginning of a new liturgical season in the Church, a season of prayer, service and self-sacrifice. It is a time of preparation, culminating in the holiest day of the year: Easter. As we embark on our Lenten journey, we hear a reading from Genesis in which God makes a covenant with Noah where he promises, “the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all mortal beings.” The Lord has said that no matter our disobedience, sin and rebellion, he will never destroy us! Saint Peter explains how the story of Noah, “in which a few persons ... were saved through water,” prefigures baptism, and baptism, as we know, marks us as the Lord’s own forever. We are sealed with a sign that can never be relinquished. So, just as the great flood signaled a rebirth for the world, our baptism is a rebirth of our soul in Christ. We are washed clean of our original sin, and the door to salvation is opened for us. It is fitting that at the beginning of our Lenten journey we hear the story of the beginning of our eternal covenant with the Lord. Both the covenant, and Lent, will be fulfilled in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

As a child, Lent meant lentils for dinner, Stations of the Cross on Fridays, and no TV ever. For a 10-year-old, it was a time to be endured. Now, as an adult, Lent can still be hard, but I recognize it as a time of opportunity as well. It is a chance to strip away all the excess in my life and focus on what matters most. While I am not exactly jumping for joy at the thought of fasting, I can’t deny that it is easier for me to spend time in prayer when I’m not mindlessly grazing on chips and chocolate all day long. I may grumble at times, but with God’s grace I have grown in understanding of the Church’s wisdom in encouraging us to fast, pray and give alms during Lent. All three practices invite us to reflect on the great sacrifice of the Lord and prepare our hearts to receive him each Sunday in the Eucharist, as well as on our final judgment day.

PRAY Lent is the perfect time to take stock of your current spiritual practices and add new ones to your daily routine. Remember the words we heard from Jesus today: “The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel.” Start off your Lenten season right by taking time to receive the sacrament of reconciliation and designating a time each day to pray. If you aren’t sure what to say to God during this time, choose a verse or two of Psalm 6 and let your heart take it from there.

Lent Begins

The Liturgical season of Lent has arrived. The tabernacle, the altar, and the priests and deacons all don violet, the color of penance. Have you ever noticed the priests wear violet stoles when hearing confessions? In the ancient world, violet (purple) was a sign of royalty due to the rarity of the pigment. Creating that color involved snails, mucus, and sunlight! Mark 15:17 says, "They clothed him in a purple cloak, and plaiting a crown of thorns they put it on him." Purple became more associated with Jesus' Passion and death and less with royalty. The royal connection still fits as Jesus is the King of kings!

Lent is a time of preparation, fasting and prayer, spiritual growth, and discipline before the joy of Easter. The forty days of Lent match the time Jesus spent in the desert fasting and praying after his Baptism in preparation for His public ministry and temptation by the devil.

Simply giving up something we like is not spiritually fruitful. In prayer, we must offer what we are giving up and then replace it with something spiritually beneficial. For example, we could give up social media and replace it with reading Scripture. We can give up a particular food we enjoy and donate the money we save from buying it to the poor.

We should also examine the sins we struggle with and consciously try to counter them with the virtue that opposes them. This is what we will explore in the coming weeks of Lent.

Please continue to pray for increased vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, and Holy Matrimony. Immaculate Heart of Mary, Pray for us!

Comienza la Cuaresma

Ha llegado el tiempo litúrgico de la Cuaresma. El sagrario, el altar, los sacerdotes y diáconos se visten de violeta, el color de la penitencia. ¿Se ha fijado alguna vez en que los sacerdotes llevan estolas violetas cuando se confiesan? En el mundo antiguo, el violeta (púrpura) era un signo de realeza debido a la rareza del pigmento. Para crear ese color se necesitaban caracoles, mucosidad y la luz del sol. Marcos 15:17 dice: "Lo vistieron con un manto púrpura, y trenzando una corona de espinas se la pusieron". La púrpura se asoció más con la pasión y muerte de Jesús y menos con la realeza. La conexión con la realeza sigue encajando, ya que Jesús es el Rey de reyes.

La Cuaresma es un tiempo de preparación, ayuno y oración, crecimiento espiritual y disciplina antes de la alegría de la Pascua. Los cuarenta días de Cuaresma coinciden con el tiempo que Jesús pasó en el desierto ayunando y rezando después de su Bautismo, como preparación para su ministerio público y la tentación del diablo.

Renunciar simplemente a algo que nos gusta no es espiritualmente fructífero. En la oración, debemos ofrecer aquello a lo que renunciamos y sustituirlo por algo espiritualmente beneficioso. Por ejemplo, podemos renunciar a las redes sociales y sustituir las por la lectura de las Escrituras. Podemos renunciar a una comida en particular que nos gusta y donar el dinero que ahorramos de comprarla a los pobres.

También deberíamos examinar los pecados con los que luchamos y tratar conscientemente de contrarrestarlos con la virtud que se opone a ellos. Esto es lo que exploraremos en las próximas semanas de Cuaresma.
