Dear families of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

Today's first readings offer a chance to reflect on a primary goal of the Ten Commandments: Freedom. Rather than viewing the Ten Commandments as a series of actions we ought not do, let us consider it as a list of liberation. By commanding us to refrain from such sins as worshipping false gods, distorting relationships, and harming others. God invites us to direct our energy to relationships and ways of being in the world that bring life. God longs to liberate God's people from the slavery of sin.

The passage featured today from John's Gospel lifts anger as a holy emotion. Upon finding the temple turned into a shopping center, angry Jesus overturns the tables and drives put the money changers. One can imagine an exasperated, red-faced Jesus shouting, "stop making my Father's house a marketplace." The Son of God demonstrates a righteous anger in this scene that move him to act for justice. Recall times when you felt or saw anger expressed as an injustice. Perhaps you were one of countless people to take to the streets in protests over the killings of Black people by police officers or the inhumane treatment of refugees. In light of the week's gospel, consider how individual and collective anger can be expressed for a positive change.

Lent is a season of cleansing out the sanctuaries of our bodies. We work to rid ourselves of the temptations that distract us from discipleship through times of prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

Fr. Quang

Queridas familias del Corazón Inmaculado de María,

Las primeras lecturas de hoy nos ofrecen la oportunidad de reflexionar sobre un objetivo primordial de los Diez Mandamientos: La libertad. En lugar de considerar los Diez Mandamientos como una serie de acciones que no debemos hacer, considerémoslos como una lista de liberación. Al ordenarnos que nos abstengamos de pecados como adorar a dioses falsos, distorsionar las relaciones y dañar a los demás. Dios nos invita a dirigir nuestra energía hacia relaciones y formas de estar en el mundo que aporten vida. Dios anhela liberar a su pueblo de la esclavitud del pecado.

El pasaje de hoy del Evangelio de Juan presenta la ira como una emoción santa. Al encontrar el templo convertido en un centro comercial, Jesús, enfadado, vuelca las mesas y echa a los cambistas. Podemos imaginar a un Jesús exasperado y con la cara colorada gritando: "Dejad de hacer de la casa de mi Padre un mercado". El Hijo de Dios demuestra en esta escena una ira justa que le mueve a actuar por la justicia. Recuerda lazos en los que sentiste o viste que la ira expresaba una injusticia. Tal vez fuiste una de las innumerables personas que salieron a la calle en protestas por los asesinatos de negros a manos de policías o por el trato inhumano a los refugiados. A la luz del Evangelio de la semana, considera cómo la ira individual y colectiva puede expresarse por un cambio positivo.

La Cuaresma es un tiempo de limpieza de los santuarios de nuestros cuerpos. Trabajamos para librarnos de las tentaciones que nos distraen del discipulado a través de tiempos de oración, ayuno y limosna.

Inmaculado Corazón de María, ruega por nosotros.

Padre Quang

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 19 • Jerome Cuenco

Lord, you have the words of ev - er - last-ing life.

1. The law of the Lord is perfect,
it revives the soul.
The decrees of the Lord are steadfast,
They give wisdom to the simple.
2. The precepts of the Lord are right,
they gladden the heart.
The command of the Lord is clear
it gives light to the eyes.
3. They are more to be desired than gold,
than quantities of gold;
and sweeter are they than honey,
than honey flowing from the comb.
4. May the spoken words of my mouth,
the thoughts of my heart,
win favor in your sight, O Lord,
my rock and my redeemer.

Gospel Acclamation

Preparation of the Gifts Dear Lord and Father of Mankind REPTON

Dear Lord and Father of mankind, forgive our foolish ways.
Reclothe us in our rightful mind,
in purer lives they service find,
in deeper reverence praise,
in deeper reverence praise.

In simple trust like theirs who heard,
beside the Syrian sea:
the gracious calling of the Lord,
let us, like them, without a word,
rise up and follow thee,
rise up and follow thee.

O Sabbath-rest by Galilee,
O calm of hills above
where Jesus knelt to share with thee,
the silence of eternity
interpreted by love,
interpreted by love.

Drop thy still dews of quietness,
till all our strivings cease;
take from our souls the strain and stress,
and let our ordered lives confess
the beauty of thy peace,
the beauty of thy peace.

Breathe through the heats of our desire thy coolness and thy balm.
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still, small voice of calm,
O still, small voice of calm.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Mass of St. Frances Cabrini

Holy, Holy, Holy
Lord, God of Hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Communion Hymn

Draw Near
Steven Janco

1. Draw near and take the Body of the Lord, and drink with faith the Blood for you outpoured.
Saved by Christ's Body and his holy Blood,
with souls refreshed we give our thanks to God.
2. Christ, our Redeemer, God's eternal Son, has by his cross and blood the victory won.
He spent his life for greatest and for least.
Praise Christ, the Paschal Victim, Christ the Priest.
3. Let us approach with faithful hearts sincere and claim the promise of salvation here.
Christ rules our hearts, and all his saints defends;
he gives believers life that never ends.

4. With heavenly bread Christ makes the hungry whole;
his living water fills the thirsting soul.
Alpha-Omega, unto whom shall bow
all nations of the earth, be with us now.

Lent – Kindness and Envy

We continue our Lenten reflection on the seven deadly sins and the corresponding opposing virtues. This week, we are exploring the sin of envy.

Envy and jealousy are often used interchangeably, but they are distinct. Jealousy is the fear of losing something you have. Envy, as the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "Refers to the sadness at the sight of another's goods and the immoderate desire to acquire them for oneself, even unjustly." (2539). The Ninth and Tenth Commandments deal with the sin of envy, coveting your neighbor's wife and his goods. Wisdom 2:24 says, "By the envy of the devil, death entered the world."

The virtue of kindness is the counter to the sin of envy. This is illustrated in the story of Joseph and his brothers in Genesis 37-47. Joseph's brothers were envious of him because he was the favorite of their father, Jacob. They plotted to kill him but sold him into slavery instead. Later, when Joseph attained a position of high authority in Egypt, he did not seek revenge. He showed kindness to them and provided relief from the famine for his whole family.

In Dante's purgatory, the virtue that slays envy is magnanimity, of having an expansive soul. The magnanimous soul has a joyful and large-hearted response to the goods and blessings of others. This is worth striving for!

Please continue praying for the Elect and Candidates preparing for full reception into the Church at the Easter Vigil. Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!

Cuaresma - Bondad y Envidia

Continuamos nuestra reflexión cuaresmal sobre los siete pecados capitales y las correspondientes virtudes opuestas. Esta semana exploraremos el pecado de la envidia.

La envidia y los celos se utilizan a menudo indistintamente, pero son distintos. Los celos son el miedo a perder algo que se tiene. La envidia, como afirma el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, "Se refiere a la tristeza ante los bienes ajenos y al deseo inmoderado de adquirirlos para sí, incluso injustamente." (2539). El Noveno y el Décimo Mandamiento tratan del pecado de la envidia, codiciar la mujer del prójimo y sus bienes. Sabiduría 2:24 dice: "Por la envidia del diablo entró la muerte en el mundo".

La virtud de la bondad es la contrapartida del pecado de la envidia. Esto se ilustra en la historia de José y sus hermanos en Génesis 37-47. Los hermanos de José le tenían envidia porque era el favorito de su padre, Jacob. Conspiraron para matarlo, pero lo vendieron como esclavo. Más tarde, cuando José alcanzó una posición de gran autoridad en Egipto, no buscó venganza. Mostró bondad hacia ellos y alivió el hambre de toda su familia.

En el purgatorio de Dante, la virtud que mata la envidia es la magnanimidad, tener un alma expansiva. El alma magnánima responde con alegría y amplitud de corazón a los bienes y bendiciones de los demás. Merece la pena esforzarse por conseguirlo.

Por favor, sigan rezando por los Elegidos y Candidatos que se preparan para la plena recepción en la Iglesia en la Vigilia Pascual. ¡Inmaculado Corazón de María, ruega por nosotros!

Medical Emergency

We have had medical emergencies during two of our Masses. When the ambulance and fire department arrived, they had to maneuver around cars illegally parked. This caused a delay in their response time for the emergency. Every second counts in an emergency situation.

Please, do not double park or park in any red zones when you come to Mass. You may be saving a life!

Soon we will have signs posted and the Brentwood Police Department will be ticketing. 10

Save the Date to help SVdP

Now is a good time to plan for the St. Vincent de Paul Bundle Sunday. It is an early Spring event, as it will be the weekend of March 23rd and 24th. Why not check out your closet and see if you have any new or gently used clothing you haven't worn for a couple years. Please, nothing ripped or stained. How about that leather belt, which is in great shape, but doesn't fit anymore. We will accept household items, so now might be a good time to sort out your cabinets for things you just never use which would make great items to sell in the SVdP Thrift Stores.

We cannot accept infant clothing or furniture, a state requirement, or toys. However, we would love to get working electronics, tools, if electric, must work of course. All the items collected are to be sold at one of the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store. This income helps support the good work done by St. Vincent de Paul throughout Contra Costa County.
