Dear families of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

Although we are five full weeks into the celebration of Easter, today's readings focus on newness. Our Easter food leftovers may be long gone, but the readings insist on every moment's freshness in the risen Jesus.

The Acts of the Apostles depicts Paul and Barnabas reflecting on all the innovative work that God has done with them. They have traveled hundreds of miles, introducing faith in Jesus Christ to all who listen, even Gentiles. For the dutiful Jewish scholar Paul, preaching to Gentiles is a completely unique development. Jesus calls Paul, and us, not to be afraid of new challenges: as John the Evangelist reports in Revelation, Jesus promises to "make all things new."

In the Gospel reading, Jesus even gives us a new commandment. The Hebrew Scriptures overflow with commandments, but Jesus knows we need one more, perfect mission: "love one another."

To love one another, as God loves us, is not a new theme. We have heard these words many times in homilies and Gospels. If we look around the world today, if everyone would follow God's ways loving each other just think how peaceful the world would be and there would be no war or unrest. Let us pray each day for the love of God to be in our hearts for others.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

Fr. Quang

Queridas familias del Inmaculado Corazón de María, Aunque ya llevamos cinco semanas completas de celebración de la Pascua, las lecturas de hoy se orientan en la novedad. Puede que lo que sobró de la comida de Pascua ya se haya terminado desde hace tiempo, pero las lecturas insisten en la frescura de cada momento de Jesús resucitado.

El libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles describen a Pablo y a Bernabé reflexionando sobre todo el trabajo innovador que Dios ha hecho con ellos. Ya han recorrido cientos de millas, presentado la fe en Jesucristo a todos los que los escuchan, incluso a los gentiles. Para el judío erudito y obediente de Pablo, la predicación a los gentiles es un hecho completamente único. Jesús llama a Pablo, y a nosotros, a no tener miedo de los nuevos retos: como informa el evangelista Juan en el libro del Apocalipsis, Jesús promete "hacer nuevas todas las cosas".

En la lectura del Evangelio, Jesús nos da incluso un mandamiento nuevo. Las Escrituras hebreas tienen un exceso de mandamientos, pero Jesús sabe que necesitamos uno más, una misión perfecta "amarnos los unos a los otros".

Amarse unos a otros, como Dios nos ama, nos es un tema nuevo. Hemos escuchado estas palabras muchas veces en las homilias y en los Evangelios. Si miramos al mundo de hoy, si todos siguieran los caminos de Dios amándose unos a otros, pensemos en lo pacífico que sería el mundo y no habría guerras ni disturbios. Recemos cada día para que el amor de Dios este en nuestros corazones para los demás.

Inmaculado Corazón de María, ruega por nosotros.

Padre Quang

Lectura

Primera lectura

Hch 14, 21b-27

En aquellos días, volvieron Pablo y Bernabé a Listra, Iconio y Antioquía, y ahí animaban a los discípulos y los exhortaban a perseverar en la fe, diciéndoles que hay que pasar por muchas tribulaciones para entrar en el Reino de Dios. En cada comunidad designaban presbíteros, y con oraciones y ayunos los encomendaban al Señor, en quien habían creído. Atravesaron luego Pisidia y llegaron a Panfilia; predicaron en Perge y llegaron a Atalía. De ahí se embarcaron para Antioquía, de donde habían salido, con la gracia de Dios, para la misión que acababan de cumplir. Al llegar, reunieron a la comunidad y les contaron lo que había hecho Dios por medio de ellos y cómo les había abierto a los paganos las puertas de la fe.

Salmo Responsorial

Ps 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13

Bendeciré tu nombre por siempre jamás, Dios mío, mi Rey.

Segunda Lectura

Apoc. 21, 1-5a

Yo, Juan, vi un cielo nuevo y una tierra nueva, porque el primer cielo y la primera tierra habían desaparecido y el mar ya no existía. También vi que descendía del cielo, desde donde está Dios, la ciudad santa, la nueva Jerusalén, engalanada como una novia, que va a desposarse con su prometido. Oí una gran voz, que venía del cielo, que decía: "Esta es la morada de Dios con los hombres; vivirá con ellos como su Dios y ellos serán su pueblo. Dios les enjugará todas sus lágrimas y ya no habrá muerte ni duelo, ni penas ni llantos, porque ya todo lo antiguo terminó". Entonces el que estaba sentado en el trono, dijo: "Ahora yo voy a hacer nuevas todas las cosas".

Evangelio

Jn 13, 31-33a. 34-35

Cuando Judas salió del cenáculo, Jesús dijo: "Ahora ha sido glorificado el Hijo del hombre y Dios ha sido glorificado en él. Si Dios ha sido glorificado en él, también Dios lo glorificará en sí mismo y pronto lo glorificará. Hijitos, todavía estaré un poco con ustedes. Les doy un mandamiento nuevo: que se amen los unos a los otros, como yo los he amado; y por este amor reconocerán todos que ustedes son mis discípulos".

Credo de Nicea

Creo en un solo Dios, Padre todo poderoso, Creador del cielo y de la tierra, de todo lo visible y lo invisible.

Creo en un solo Señor, Jesucristo, Hijo único de Dios, nacido del Padre antes de todos los siglos: Dios de Dios, Luz de Luz, Dios verdadero de Dios verdadero, engendrado, no creado, de la misma naturaleza del Padre, por quien todo fue hecho; que por nosotros, los hombres, y para nuestra salvación bajó del cielo, y por obra del Espíritu Santo se encarnó de María, la Virgen, y se hizo hombre; y por nuestra causa fue crucificado en tiempos de Poncio Pilato, padeció al tercer día, según las Escrituras, y subió al cielo, y está sentado a la derecha del Padre; y de nuevo vendrá con Gloria para juzgar a vivos y muertos, y su reino no tendrá fin.

Creo en el Espíritu Santo, Señor dador de vida, que procede del Padre y del Hijo, que con el Padre y el Hijo recibe una misma adoración y Gloria, y que hablo por los profetas.

Creo en la Iglesia, que es santa, católica y apostólica. Confieso que hay un solo bautismo para el perdón de los pecados. Espero la resurrección de los muertos y la vida del mundo. Amen.

Readings

First Reading

Acts 14:21-27

After Paul and Barnabas had proclaimed the good news to that city and made a considerable number of disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch.

They strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith, saying, "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God."

They appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord in whom they had put their faith.

Then they traveled through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia.

After proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia.

From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now accomplished. And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

Reponsorial Psalm

Ps 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13

I will praise your name forever, my king and my God, my king and my God.

Second Reading

Rev 21:1-5a

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God.

He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away." The One who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new."

Gospel

Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and God will glorify him at once.

My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another.

As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.

This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Acts 14:21-27 | Rev 21:1-5a | Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I'm an expressive one when it comes to sharing my opinions: I absolutely LOVE these new shoes! I LOVE, LOVE, LOVE this lemon meringue pie! All good. My friends and family are mildly pleased that I am content with my wardrobe and my diet. But in today's Gospel, Jesus gives us the great commandment, combining the two commandments – to love God and to love neighbor – into one: "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." But what does it really mean to love? Saint Paul says it is to be patient, kind, and to rejoice with the truth; it is not being jealous, pompous, rude, or quick-tempered. (1 Cor 13: 4-6) Saint Thomas Aquinas says that "to love is to will the good of another." The love we show is the very essence of what it means to be Christian. "This (italics added) is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In today's reading from Acts, Paul, and Barnabas return from their travels to various Christian communities. They have shared the Good News, making disciples in each place and building up the Church. Yet when they return, they do not gloat or boast of their accomplishments. Rather, they "reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles." Sometimes in our strivings – to be better friends or parents, better Christians, better at sharing our faith – we can become discouraged when we fall short. Paul, arguably the best evangelist ever, reminds us that God works through us, not the other way around. We are to persevere, placing our trust in God. Through him we are able to love as he does, and help others come to know that same love.

ACTIONS Spring is upon us! Plant something and watch it grow. Just as the sun and water nurture a garden, God nurtures and helps us grow through the Holy Spirit and the people around us. How can we in turn share that love with others?

Oracion San Miguel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla.
Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y asechanzas del demonio. Reprímale Dios, pedimos suplicantes,
y tú Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial,
con el divino poder de Dios, arroja al infierno a Satanás
y a todos los espíritus malignos que andan dispersos por el mundo para la perdición de las almas.
Amén.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God
rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan
and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

Needs Your Help!

St. Vincent de Paul @ IHM is trying to purchase a slightly used van to replace the one we currently have. We received our current van as a wonderful donation from an IHM parishioner, quite some time ago, and it has served us well for quite some time. Now it is where it needs a lot of maintenance/repair work, which is costly. We have been looking for a replacement and received money from the Masino Foundation and the Brentwood Lions Club, to help us purchase a replacement, but need your help as well. Please send any donations to the Church Office marked for St. Vincent de Paul, Van Fund. Your help is greatly appreciated. God Bless you for your support of St. Vincent de Paul @ IHM.

MARY VIII

The Second World War came to an end in Tokyo Bay on the deck of the battleship Missouri, with the official surrender of Japan to allied forces. The date was August 15, 1945, the Feast of the Assumption. Fatima-watchers see no coincidence in that date.

In July, 1952, ten years after his initial consecration of the world, Pius XII privately consecrated Russia and her people to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. He did not ask the bishops of the world to join him in the consecration, and again, it is presumed that political realities were high among the Pope's considerations. Stalin remained in power in Moscow; the Pope did not want to touch off a new round of persecution against the Christians of Russia.

The 1952 consecration was not without its effect, however. Classified KGB files made public after the collapse of the Soviet Union show that at the 1952 congress of the communist party in Moscow, Stalin announced his plans to invade Western Europe – after the harsh Russian winter. Stalin gave his speech on October 13, the anniversary of the great miracle at Fatima, not that Stalin knew or cared. His target date for the invasion: April, 1953.

Stalin died suddenly in March, 1953. He was replaced by Nikita Krushchev, a cold warrior, to be sure, but a man who had no interest in another war, and who would seek a workable accommodation with the West. It would be another thirty years, the mid-1980s, before Russia would again consider an invasion of the West. By that time, however, a Pope named John Paul II was in Rome. This Pope was determined to bring about the consecration according to Our Lady's request.

MARIA VIII

La Segunda Guerra Mundial termino en la Bahía de Tokio en la cubierta de la nave de Guerra Missouri, con la rendición de Japón a las fuerzas aliadas. La fecha era el 15 de Agosto de 1945, La Fiesta de la Ascensión. Los que han seguido a Fátima no ven ninguna coincidencia con esta fecha.

En Julio del 1952, diez años después de la consagración inicial del mundo, Pio XII privadamente consagro a Rusia y a su gente al Inmaculado Corazón de María. El no invito a los obispos del mundo a tomar parte en la consagración, y otra vez, se presumió que realidades políticas eran prioridades en las consideraciones del Papa. Stalin estaba todavía en poder; el Papa no quiso descargar una nueva hola de persecución contra los Cristianos de Rusia.

La consagración del 1952 no fue sin efectos algunos. Archivos clasificados del KGB fueron publicados después del colapso de la Unión Soviética y expusieron que en el congreso del 1952 del partido comunista en Moscú, Stalin anuncio sus planes para invadir a Europa del Oeste—después del severo invierno Ruso. Stalin dio su discurso el 13 de Octubre, el aniversario del grandioso milagro de Fátima, no que Stalin sabia o le importara. Su fecha proyectada para la invasión: Abril del 1953.

Stalin falleció repentinamente en Marzo del 1953. Fue reemplazado por Nikita Krushchev, un guerrero frio, para ser seguro, pero un hombre que no tenia ningún interés en otra Guerra y quien buscaría la manera de trabajar con el Oeste. Pasarían otros treinta años, a mediados del 1980, antes que Rusia de nuevo considerara otra invasión del Oeste. Pero a ese tiempo, un Papa de nombre Juan Pablo II estaba en Roma. En todo caso, este Papa estaba determinado a llevar a cabo la consagración según los deseos de Nuestra Señora.

MARY IX

December 8 is the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. When it falls on a Sunday, as it does this year, it may be celebrated the next day. This feast is often confused with the Virgin Birth. The Virgin Birth is about Christ's birth. The Immaculate Conception is about Mary's conception. The belief is that Mary was conceived without original sin. This "singular grace and privilege" (in the words of Pope Pius IX, who proclaimed the dogma in 1854) was in service to Mary's unique role in giving the world its Savior.

I have been writing this autumn about Our Lady of Fatima; but we celebrate this week another great apparition of Mary, and one closely connected with the Immaculate Conception. Tomorrow (Dec. 9) is the anniversary of the first of the apparitions of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The great feast day is Thursday, Dec. 12.

Mary is immaculate, free from sin, as the pure vessel, the Ark of the New Covenant, the theotokos, or God-bearer. It is through her virginal body that the Second Person of the Trinity took human form. In the apparitions at Guadalupe, Our Lady appears pregnant with her Son. This fact was very clearly recognized by the Mexican people, who found a new dignity and a new self-worth, in the love that the Mother of God had for them.

That love gave birth to Christ in Mexico: in just three years following the apparitions at Guadalupe, there were eight million conversions among the Mexican people. Mexico had become one of the great Catholic nations of the world, and the rest Latin America was shortly to follow.

We, too, are called to be God-bearers, are called to give birth to Christ, through our hearts and through our love, for the salvation of the world. We receive tremendous support in this mission by drawing on the graces available to us through our Mother's Immaculate Heart. More on devotion to Our Lady's Immaculate Heart, next week.

MARIA IX

El 8 de Diciembre es el Santo de la Inmaculada Concepción. Cuando cae en domingo, como es este año, se puede celebrar el día después. El Santo a veces se confunde con el nacimiento Virgen. El Nacimiento Virgen es sobre el nacimiento de Cristo. La Inmaculada Concepción es sobre la concepción de María. La creencia es que María fue concebida sin el pecado original. Esta "gracia singular y privilegiada" (en las palabras del Papa IX, quien proclamó el dogma en el año 1854) fue en servicio al papel único que María tuvo en dar al mundo su Salvador.

Yo estuve escribiendo este otoño sobre Nuestra Señora de Fátima; pero nosotros celebramos esta semana otra gran aparición de María, y una que está conectada muy cerca con la Inmaculada Concepción. Mañana (9 de Diciembre) es el aniversario de unas de las primeras apariciones de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. La grandiosa fiesta es el Jueves, 12 de Diciembre.

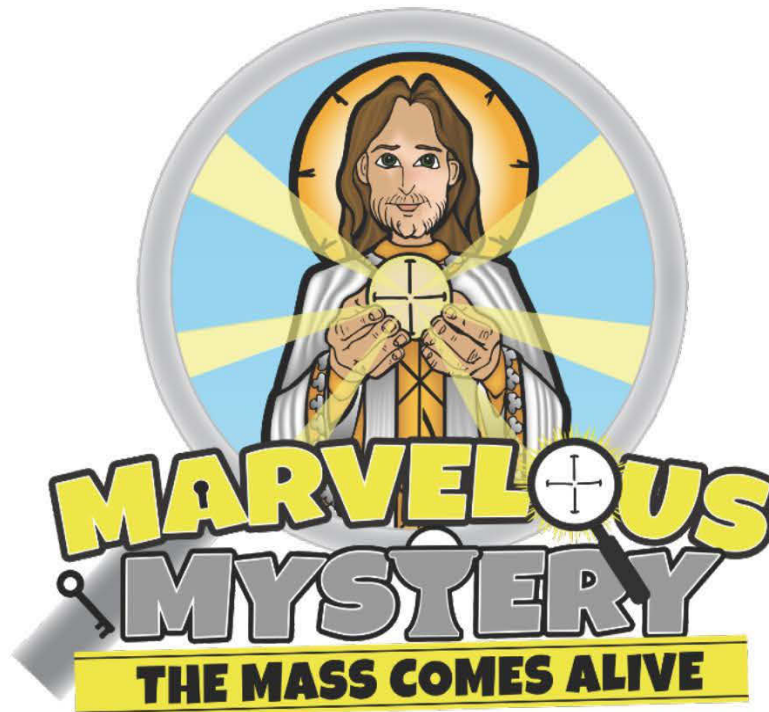

María es inmaculada, libre de pecado, como un buque puro, el Arca de la Nueva Alianza, de Theotokos o que nos trae a Dios. Es por medio de su cuerpo virginal que la Segunda Persona de la Trinidad tomó su forma humana. En la aparición de Guadalupe, Nuestra Señora aparecer embarazada con su Hijo. Este factor fue reconocido claramente por la gente mejicana, quienes encontraron nueva dignidad y un Nuevo valor personal en el amor de la Madre de Dios que tuvo con ellos.

El amor dio nacimiento a Cristo en Méjico; es solamente tres años después de las apariciones en Guadalupe, hubieron ocho millones de conversiones entre la gente mejicana. Méjico se ha vuelto uno de los grandes países en las naciones Católicas del Mundo, y el resto de América Latina siguió poco tiempo después.

Nosotros también somos llamados a traer a Dios, somos llamados a dar nacimiento a Cristo, por medio de nuestros corazones y por medio de nuestro amor, para la salvación del mundo. Nosotros recibimos tremendo apoyo en esta misión atrayendo en las gracias que están disponibles a nosotros por medio del Inmaculado Corazón de Nuestra Madre. Mas sobre la 9 devoción al Inmaculado Corazón de Nuestra Señora la semana que viene.
