Dear families of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

Children are usually still quite young the first time they have occasion to shout, "That's not fair!" At some point in our lives, we've probably all felt the bitterness of unfairness. Today's readings agree that life isn't always fair—yet, unexpectedly, invites us to rejoice!

We rejoice because God's mercy is totally unfair: God lavishes us with forgiveness and love even when we deserve less. Both the reading from Isaiah and the psalm praise the great mercy of God, mercy that forgives our sins over and over.

In the Gospel parable, Jesus demonstrates that God longs to give good things to all of us, even to those who seem less worthy. When Saint Paul reflects on God's goodness, embodied in Jesus Christ, he can hardly wait to enter his heavenly reward.

The gospel invites us to think instead of justice for all. We are called to turn our attention to the poor and care for their wellbeing, just as we are called to review our priorities and to educate ourselves on the root causes of poverty. Take some time this week to identify the structural barriers that perpetuate poverty in the United States.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

Fr. Quang

Queridas familias del Inmaculado Corazón de Maria,

Los niños suelen ser todavía muy pequeños la primera vez que tienen ocasión de gritar: "¡No es justo!" En algún momento de nuestras vidas, probablemente todos hemos sentido la amargura de la injusticia. Las lecturas de hoy coinciden en que la vida no siempre es justa y, sin embargo, nos invitan a alegrarnos!

Nos alegramos porque la misericordia de Dios es totalmente injusta: Dios nos colma de perdón y amor incluso cuando merecemos menos. Tanto la lectura de Isaías como el salmo alaban la gran misericordia de Dios, misericordia que perdona nuestros pecados una y otra vez.

En la parábola del Evangelio, Jesús demuestra que Dios anhela darnos cosas buenas a todos, incluso a los que parecen menos dignos. Cuando san Pablo reflexiona sobre la bondad de Dios, encarnada en Jesucristo, apenas puede esperar a entrar en su recompensa celestial.

El Evangelio nos invita a pensar más bien en la justicia para todos. Estamos llamados a dirigir nuestra atención a los pobres y a preocuparnos por su bienestar, del mismo modo que estamos llamados a revisar nuestras prioridades y a informarnos sobre las causas profundas de la pobreza. Dedicar un tiempo esta semana a identificar las barreras estructurales que perpetúan la pobreza en Estados Unidos.

Inmaculado Corazón de Maria, ruega por nosotros.

Padre Quang

Preparación de las OfrendasEl Viñador
Cesáreo Gabaráin

1. Por los caminos sedientos de luz, levantándose antes que el sol, hacia los campos que lejos están, muy temprano se va el viñador. No se detiene en su caminar, no le asusta la sed ni el calor. Hay una viña que quiere cuidar, una viña que es todo su amor.
2. Él te protege con un valladar levantado en tu derredor, quita del alma las piedras del mal y ha elegido la cepa mejor. Limpia los surcos con todo su afán, y los riega con sangre y sudor. Dime si puede hacer algo más por su viña, el viñador.
3. Por los caminos sedientos de luz, levantándose antes que el sol, hacia los campos que lejos están, muy temprano se va el viñador. Sólo racimos de amargo sabor ha encontrado en tu corazón. Dime si puede esperar algo más de su viña, el viñador.

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 55:6-9 | Phil 1:20c-24, 27a | Mt 20:1-16a

Written by

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today's readings should bring us great joy. They are a reminder that our Lord may have high standards, but he is also "generous in forgiving" and "near to all who call upon him." In the Gospel, we hear the parable of the laborers in the vineyard. Some work all day while others arrive at the last hour. However, all are paid the same. Similarly, we can all receive God's heavenly reward - whether we are faithful Catholics since birth or converts in our final hour. This parable may evoke mixed feelings for those who see themselves as the laborers who have toiled all day and wonder why their reward is not greater. But rather than making us jealous, this parable should make us rejoice: How wonderful that everyone has the opportunity for everlasting life with the Lord! And what great comfort to know that if we falter and lose our way, it is never too late to return to God.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Sometimes, knowing that we are the recipients of God's bountiful mercy, we can be tempted to lead a life focused mostly on worldly pleasures. To paraphrase St. Augustine: Make me holy Lord ... just not yet! Of course we know this isn't the right attitude or approach to life, but it's certainly tempting. Let's return to the message of the Gospel for a moment. Yes, the Lord is generous in giving all the workers the same wage. But perhaps equally as important is that we are called to be workers in the Lord's vineyard, and what an honor and privilege that is! Serving in the Lord's kingdom here on earth is not drudgery; it is life-giving and fills us with God's love and grace. Let us recall the words of St. Paul in today's Letter to the Philippians. Although he longs to "depart this life and be with Christ," he knows that staying here on earth means "fruitful labor for me." Let us also strive to keep our eyes on the Lord and labor in his field for as long as we are able.

PRAY The first reading from Isaiah reminds us that the Lord works in ways we can't understand: "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord." Let us ask God this week for the fortitude to reorient our thoughts and ways to his will, not ours, so as to "conduct [ourselves] in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ."

St. Vincent de Paul – September 27

Many of us at Immaculate Heart of Mary have heard of St. Vincent de Paul. Perhaps you volunteer for the St. Vincent de Paul Society or donate food or other items. This week, on September 27th, the Church recognizes the Saint whose name is so easily identified with serving the poor.

Vincent was born in 1576 in Gascony, France, to a family of farmers. His parents noted that Vincent was wise and intelligent, so they sent him to be educated in Dax. After several years in school, a lawyer hired him as a tutor for his children. This allowed Vincent to continue his education. He was ordained a priest at age 24 and continued his education receiving a Doctor of Theology degree four years later.

On a voyage, Vincent was captured by pirates and sold as a slave in Tunis. He eventually escaped from slavery and returned to his priestly duties. He heard the confession of a dying peasant and it moved him in an unexpected way. He began to serve among the poor and peasant farmers. He organized some of the wealthy of Paris to aid him in serving the poor. He knew he needed to establish a lasting way for priests to serve this underserved population. This led to him founding the Congregation of the Mission and establishing seminaries. St. Vincent de Paul died on September 27, 1660.

In 1833, French university students established the Society of St. Vincent de Paul as a charitable organization dedicated to the service of the poor. It is present today in over 150 countries. St. Vincent de Paul, pray for us! Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!

San Vicente de Paúl - 27 de septiembre

Muchos de nosotros en el Inmaculado Corazón de María hemos oído hablar de San Vicente de Paúl. Quizá seáis voluntarios de la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl o donéis alimentos u otros artículos. Esta semana, el 27 de septiembre, la Iglesia reconoce al santo cuyo nombre se identifica tan fácilmente con el servicio a los pobres.

Vicente nació en 1576 en Gasuña, Francia, en el seno de una familia de agricultores. Sus padres observaron que Vicente era sabio e inteligente, por lo que lo enviaron a educarse a Dax. Tras varios años en la escuela, un abogado le contrató como tutor de sus hijos. Esto permitió a Vincent continuar su educación. Fue ordenado sacerdote a los 24 años y continuó su educación recibiendo el título de Doctor en Teología cuatro años más tarde.

En un viaje, Vicente fue capturado por piratas y vendido como esclavo en Túnez. Finalmente escapó de la esclavitud y volvió a sus deberes sacerdotales. Escuchó la confesión de un campesino moribundo, que le conmovió de forma inesperada. Comenzó a servir entre los pobres y los campesinos. Organizó a algunos de los ricos de París para que le ayudaran a servir a los pobres. Sabía que necesitaba establecer una forma duradera para que los sacerdotes sirvieran a esta población desatendida. Así fundó la Congregación de la Misión y creó seminarios. San Vicente de Paúl murió el 27 de septiembre de 1660.

En 1833, unos universitarios franceses crearon la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl como organización caritativa dedicada al servicio de los pobres. Hoy está presente en más de 150 países. ¡San Vicente de Paúl, ruega por nosotros! ¡Inmaculado Corazón Inmaculado de María, ruega por nosotros!
