Dear Families of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

In today's gospel, Jesus proclaims what we now call the teaching of the beatitudes. In other translations, the word that we read as "blessed" is translated instead to mean "happy." When we look at the specific situations that Jesus proclaims as happy or blessed, we may be confused. Where is happiness amid great grief? In a time in which being known and recognized is the ideal, how are the meek proclaimed as blessed? In the end, this passage can leave us asking questions, but it can also leave us with great hope.

Our true joy is not dependent on what we possess, accomplish, or simply luck into. Instead, happiness is found in knowing Christ and living in a way that proclaims his love and mercy. The blessing of the Lord and the success of the world are not synonymous—instead, they are often found in opposition to one another. Still, it can be challenging to resist wallowing in the struggles of this world, even when we know it is in the midst of pain that Christ draws near us. And so today we honor the lives of those saints who have lived the truth of the Beatitudes to find eternal blessedness in Christ, and we are reminded of our call to live in a way that reflects Jesus' own life.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

Queridas Familias del Inmaculado Corazón de María,

En el evangelio actual, Jesús proclama lo que ahora llamamos la enseñanza de las bienaventuranzas. En otras traducciones, la palabra que leemos como "bendecido" se traduce en cambio como "feliz". Cuando miramos las situaciones concretas que Jesús proclama como felices o bendecidas, podemos estar confundidos. ¿Dónde está la felicidad en medio de un gran dolor? En una época en la que ser conocido y reconocido es el ideal, ¿cómo se proclama bendecido a los sumisos? Al final, este pasaje puede hacernos preguntarnos, pero también puede dejarnos con una gran esperanza.

Nuestra verdadera alegría no depende de lo que poseamos, logramos o simplemente tenemos suerte. En cambio, la felicidad se encuentra en conocer a Cristo y vivir de una manera que proclame su amor y misericordia. La bendición del Señor y el éxito del mundo no son sinónimos; en cambio, a menudo se encuentran en oposición entre sí. Aun así, puede ser difícil resistirse a hundirnos en las luchas de este mundo, incluso cuando sabemos que es en medio del dolor cuando Cristo se acerca a nosotros. Y así, hoy honramos las vidas de aquellos santos que han vivido la verdad de las Bienaventuranzas para encontrar la bendición eterna en Cristo, y se nos recuerda nuestro llamado a vivir de una manera que refleje la propia vida de Jesús.

Inmaculado Corazón de María, ruega por nosotros.

Entrance Hymn Sing with All the Saints in Glory
ODE TO JOY

1. Sing with all the saints in glory,
Sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
To the former days belong.
All around the clouds are breaking,
Soon the storms of time shall cease;
In God's likeness, we awaken,
Knowing everlasting peace.

2. O what glory, far exceeding
All that eye has yet perceived!
Holiest hearts, for ages pleading,
Never that full joy conceived.
God has promised, Christ prepares it,
There on high our welcome waits.
Ev'ry humble spirit shares it;
Christ has passed the eternal gates.

3. Life eternal! heav'n rejoices:
Jesus lives who once was dead;
Shout with joy, O deathless voices!
Child of God, lift up your head!
Patriarchs from distant ages,
Saints all longing for their heav'n,
Prophets, psalmists, seers, and sages,
All await the glory giv'n.

Gloria Mass of Redemption

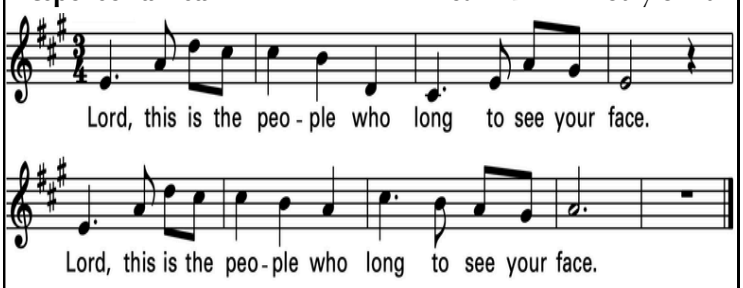
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, son of the Father;
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us,
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the most high, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.
Amen, Amen!

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 24 · Timothy Smith



1. All creation is the work of God.
The earth and all creatures
belong to the Lord.
From mountains to valleys,
from ocean to land,
the Lord God made them all.

2. Who will climb the sacred mountain,
the holy place of God?
Those who have not done evil,
whose hearts are pure,
whose eyes are not blind.

3. God will send a blessing to honor his faithful ones.
Lord, this is the people who seek the face of Jacob's God.

Communion Hymn I Am the Bread of Life
Suzanne Toolan, RSM

1. I am the Bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger;
   and who believe in me shall not thirst.
   No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread,
   you shall live for ever, you shall live for ever.

3. Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood,
   and drink of his blood, you shall not have life within you.

4. I am the Resurrection, I am the life.
   If you believe in me,
   even though you die, you shall live for ever.

Solemnity of All Saints

Written by THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

Rev 7:2-4, 9-14 | 1 Jn 3:1-3 | Mt 5:1-12a

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today's feast reminds us that we were not made for this world. We are destined to live with God in his heavenly kingdom. Our first reading from the Book of Revelation contains a vision John received which gives us a glimpse of what we'll see there: "a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue standing before the throne and before the Lamb," crying out his praise in a loud voice. For us on earth, the question is: How do we live so that one day, we will join that chorus of all the saints? The Gospel of Matthew gives us a road map to kingdom living. Those who will inherit the kingdom of heaven are those who are "poor in spirit," those "who hunger and thirst for righteousness, the merciful, the peacemakers," those "who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness," and those against whom "every kind of evil is uttered falsely because of [Christ]." With these words, we're reminded of the many faces of holiness. May we strive to pattern our lives according to the Beatitudes and so take our place among the ranks of all the saints in heaven.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Today's responsorial psalm invites us to pray, "Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face." There are so many longings in our hearts – longings for belonging, longing for love, longing for justice. But the ultimate longing of our heart is for the Lord, even if we don't yet realize it. Part of our work in evangelization is to help awaken people's awareness of the ultimate desire of their hearts. As St. Augustine famously wrote, "You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you." Spend some time in prayer this week asking the Lord to increase your own longing for him, as well as that of anyone you want to come to know the Lord better.

PRAY

Being a saint, perhaps, has something to do with longing for the Lord as our greatest and highest good, preferring nothing to him. As St. Thomas was praying before a crucifix toward the end of his life, the Lord said: "You have written well of me, Thomas. What reward will you receive from me for your labor?" St. Thomas Aquinas responded, "Domine, Non Nisi Te – Nothing but you, Lord." May we pray to desire nothing but to be counted among the children of God. For so we are.

REFLECTIONS / REFLEXIONES

The Survivors

“I’m no saint.”

We hear people say this all the time, and what they usually mean is this: “I’ve made mistakes.” Well, congratulations! You have taken that first crucial step to sainthood. You’re well on your way!

A saint is not a person with fewer-than-average mistakes. A saint is a person with greater-than-average hope.

What is hope? Hope is certainty in the promises of God over the merits of man. Hope is what makes a Christian rejoice when he hears the litany of earthly trials described in the Beatitudes, because hope makes him see not the trials but the grace promised through them.

Hope remembers, always, that God is in the business of bringing life from death.

“These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress.” (Rev. 7:14) This is how we hear the saints described in the Book of Revelation. We do not hear: “These are the ones who were perfect. These are the ones who had no faults. These are the ones who made good choices.”

No — these are the ones who survived.

We are all buried in the rubble heap of sin and death. Many of us despair and cry, “We cannot climb out!” The saint is the one who has the hope to answer, “But Someone is coming. Just wait.” The saint is the one who looks for the sliver of light, who reaches for it even when everyone else dismisses it as illusion.

Follow the saints. They know how to survive.

Los supervivientes

No soy ningún santo."

Escuchamos a la gente decir esto todo el tiempo, y lo que suelen decir es esto: "He cometido errores." ¡Pues enhorabuena! Has dado ese primer paso crucial hacia la santidad. ¡Vas bien encaminado!

Un santo no es una persona con menos errores de lo habitual. Un santo es una persona con una esperanza mayor que la media.

¿Qué es la esperanza? La esperanza es la certeza en las promesas de Dios sobre los méritos del hombre. La esperanza es lo que hace que un cristiano se alegre cuando escucha la letanía de pruebas terrenales descritas en las Bienaventuranzas, porque la esperanza le hace ver no las pruebas, sino la gracia prometida a través de ellas.

Hope recuerda, siempre, que Dios está en el negocio de traer la vida de la muerte.

"Estos son los que han sobrevivido a tiempos de gran angustia." (Apocalipsis 7:14) Así es como escuchamos a los santos descritos en el Libro del Apocalipsis. No escuchamos: "Estos son los que fueron perfectos. Estos son los que no tuvieron defectos. Estos son los que tomaron buenas decisiones."

No — estos son los que sobrevivieron.

Todos estamos enterrados en los escombros del pecado y la muerte. Muchos de nosotros desesperamos y clamamos: "¡No podemos salir!" El santo es quien tiene la esperanza de responder: "Pero alguien viene. Espera." El santo es quien busca el rayo de luz, quien lo busca incluso cuando todos los demás lo descartan como una ilusión.

Sigue a los santos. Saben cómo sobrevivir.

Today begins Vocation Awareness Week

Called to Become Saints!

Today, on the Solemnity of All Saints, we begin National Vocation Awareness Week—a special time to focus on vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life, and to help young people listen for God's call.

This year we also celebrate the Year of St. Francis, whose life reminds us that holiness begins by listening to Christ and responding generously. Francis wrote, "Incline the ear of your heart and obey the voice of the Son of God." That invitation is meant for every Christian.

God calls each of us to holiness, but He leads us there along different paths: marriage, priesthood, religious life, the diaconate, or generous single life. Our vocation is more than what we do; it is the particular way God calls us to love, serve, and ultimately become saints.

During Vocation Awareness Week, ask the Lord to help you live your own vocation more faithfully—and encourage the young people in your life to ask a simple question with an open heart: "Lord, how are you calling me to become a saint?"

Hoy comienza la Semana de Concienciación Vocacional

¡Llamados a convertirse en santos!

Hoy, en la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos, comenzamos la Semana Nacional de Concienciación sobre la Vocación, un momento especial para centrarse en las vocaciones al sacerdocio, al diaconado y a la vida consagrada, y para ayudar a los jóvenes a escuchar el llamado de Dios.

Este año también celebramos el Año de San Francisco, cuya vida nos recuerda que la santidad comienza escuchando a Cristo y respondiendo generosamente. Francisco escribió: "Inclina el oído de tu corazón y obedece la voz del Hijo de Dios." Esa invitación está dirigida a todo cristiano.

Dios nos llama a cada uno a la santidad, pero nos guía allí por caminos diferentes: matrimonio, sacerdocio, vida religiosa, diaconado o vida generosa de soltero. Nuestra vocación es más que lo que hacemos; es la forma particular en que Dios nos llama a amar, servir y, en última instancia, convertirnos en santos.

Durante la Semana de Concienciación sobre la Vocación, pide al Señor que te ayude a vivir tu propia vocación con más fielidad—y anima a los jóvenes de tu vida a hacer una pregunta sencilla con el corazón abierto: "Señor, ¿cómo me llamas a ser santo?"
